

Right Tonight

Tyler Rich

Gas in the Bronco, cans in the console, coast in the headlights
Lookin' like Hollywood, tell me why we would ever call it a night
If we wanna speed up we could leave right now
If we wanna slow down we could turn around
Sittin' here at a crossroad, neither of us wanna go left
Cause it heads home, so whatcha say we take a

Right tonight
Get a little lost out on a country mile
Ride it like the wind and let the road unwind
Take our time crossin' lines, underneath the light of a midnight moon
Look around, all the stars are wishing they were you right now
The way that you're shinin' with your diamond eyes, and your lips on mine
Baby can you feel it? This is just feelin' right tonight

Don't you wanna wake up last night's makeup
With a smile that you can't take off?
Cause you stayed up til dawn, loved a little too long
Baby if that's wrong, then I don't wanna be

Right tonight
Get a little lost out on a country mile
Ride it like the wind and let the road unwind
Take our time crossin' lines, underneath the light of a midnight moon
Look around, all the stars are wishing they were you right now
The way that you're shinin' with your diamond eyes, and your lips on mine
Baby can you feel it? This is just feelin' right tonight

If we wanna speed up we could leave right now
If we wanna slow down we could turn around
And take our sweet time, twice around town
We can take the long way around... or do it

Right tonight
Get a little lost out on a country mile
Ride it like the wind and let the road unwind
Take our time crossini' lines, underneath the light of a midnight moon
