

Clairvoyant

Tyler Shaw

Living in this space between the lines
The past has got the best of me
Sensing that the wind is pushing time
Am I
Supposed to be
Supposed to be feelin'

Free
I get ahead of me
Will be the death
I breathe
And savor everything
See what the present brings

I'm not clairvoyant
And it's annoying
Got a crystal ball that's broken
Don't see what the futures holding
I'm not any psychic
Ain't a crisis
It's just how my life is going
The story is unfolding
I wish I was clairvoyant
I wish I was clairvoyant

Unpredictable inside my head
All feels like one crazy dream
Tomorrow is just anybody's guess
Yea I guess
Yea I guess
I guess we'll wait and

See
I get ahead of me
This will be the death of me
I gotta
Breathe
And savor everything
See what the present brings

I'm not clairvoyant
And it's annoying
Got a crystal ball that's broken
Don't see what the futures holding
I'm not any psychic
Ain't a crisis
It's just how my life is going
The story is unfolding
I wish I was clairvoyant
I wish I was clairvoyant
I wish I was...

I'm not clairvoyant
And it's annoying

Don't see what the futures holding
I'm not any psychic
Ain't a crisis

I wish I was clairvoyant
