

Say Nothing

Tyler Shaw

I've been drunk for the last few days
Trying to wash my mistakes away
If I could speak I'd call your name
But my silence fills the night with shame

Nothing's ever perfect when you're mine
We've fallen in and out of love
They say you grow together over time
But have we grown enough?

We're standing here
You say nothing, I say nothing
I could pull you near
But I do nothing, I do nothing
And I know that you need me know how you feel
But my heart needs a minute to beat
So can we stand right here?
And say nothing, and say nothing

We need a flood to end this drought
Cause we built our house on damaged ground
Bottled up my feelings so I won't drown
If I could, I'd pour my heart right out

Nothing's ever perfect when you're mine
We've fallen in and out of love
They say you grow together over time
But have we grown enough?

We're standing here
You say nothing, I say nothing
I could pull you near
But I do nothing, I do nothing
And I know that you need me know how you feel
But my heart needs a minute to beat
So can we stand right here?
And say nothing, and say nothing

We're standing here
You say nothing, I say nothing
I could pull you near
But I do nothing, I do nothing
And I know that you need me know how you feel
But my heart needs a minute to beat
So can we stand right here?
And say nothing, and say nothing

And say nothing, and say nothing
