

I DON'T LOVE YOU ANYMORE

Tyler, the Creator

See Um, heavy feelings for you, yeah yeah it's no secret
You too cool for me and I ain't tryin' to freeze up
Like the Johnsons, nonsense I will speak up
And realize there's more fish in the sea I'ma re-up
Like bitch, I know my shit is bumpy it's eczema
So I won't walk around with my head down like I got beat up
Um, you do you I'll do me I'll just chuck the peace up
I ain't trying to keep up because

I don't love you anymore
(Woah, woah, woah, woah, woah)
'Cause I don't love you anymore
(Woah, woah, woah, woah, woah)
'Cause I don't love you anymore
You're wastin' my time and I know that these things are not hard
'Cause I don't love you anymore
(Woah, woah, woah, woah, woah)
But this just might just be better for us you know?

'Cause I don't love you like I used to (Where'd the time go?)
(A new location, that's all that I know)
'Cause you don't wanna talk about it baby
(I, I, I, I) Where'd the time go?

What now? Move it on, but how?
Something hurt my feelings and I lost a friend
Now I'm stuck, forever and ever and ever and ever
And ever and ever and ever and ever, forever
(I don't love you no more, tell me where to go)
(Can I have my heart back?)

I don't love you anymore
'Cause I don't love you anymore
'Cause I don't love you anymore
You're wastin' my time and I know that these things are not hard
'Cause I don't love you anymore, more, more
But this just might just be better for us you know—
