

Try To Forget

Tyler Ward

I don't think I wanna try to forget (You)
I don't think I wanna move on quite yet

I see your name pop up on my friend's text message
Excused myself 'cause my broken chest is
In need of medicine
'Cause you found someone else so damn quickly
Was hoping you'd wait around at least for weeks
But it was all a pipedream

Now all of our friends tell me time is healing
But I don't want it 'cause you're not with me
So how does someone move on
When they don't wanna move on?
They say take her photos off your iPhone
And get dressed up and don't stay at home
But I don't wanna move on
Like you did (No)

I don't think I wanna try to forget (You)
I don't think I wanna move on quite yet (No)
I don't think I wanna try to forget (You)
I don't think I wanna move on quite yet

You see, I've been just fine for about two days and
I'm not sure if I like it
'Cause that means I'm gonna be okay and
I'm not sure if I like it
Can't quite remember how you smile anymore
Kind of miss it
I can't quite remember how you taste anymore
And I miss it

But I took your photos off my iPhone
And got dressed up so I won't go home
But I don't wanna move on
Like you did (No)

I don't think I wanna try to forget (You)
I don't think I wanna move on quite yet (No)
I don't think I wanna try to forget (You)
I don't think I wanna move on quite yet
