

Cry

Tynisha Keli

Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh yea

Have you ever had a problem you had to keep to yourself?
And u trying but it hurts like hell
It's a feeling I despise
Bringing misery to life
Wishing u had someone to trust in so u can let it all out
Convey the reason you've been feeling so down
But when you reach out for help you find there's no one but you rself
I know whoa

Life won't be this tough forever only one thing makes it better
Don't hold it inside
No such thing as pride
When your hearts on the line its okay to cry [x2]

I know what you feeling, I've been through it myself
Contained emotions, I was locked it a shell
Little did I know
I was heading down that road (dead end road)
I never had a compass directing where I should go
Make a left off Victim Road
Continue straight into the light
'cause that's where you're sure to find help

You ain't never too old or too grown to just cry
Said you gotta let it out sometime
Sit in a corner and cry
Hug on a pillow and cry
Scream at the top of your lungs and just cry
You ain't never too old or too grown to just cry
Said you gotta let it out sometime
Sit in a corner and cry
Hug on a pillow and cry
Scream at the top of your lungs and just cry

Life won't be this tough forever only one thing makes it better
don't hold it inside
No such thing as pride
When your hearts on the line its okay to cry [x2]
