

21 And Counting

Typecast

I am waiting
But I find myself looking
I'm sick of myself
I'm so lonely I just found out

Sometimes I can't control these tears
Everything is falling down on me
I feel so cold
And it's all my fault

So this is how the guilt feels
It can break you down to pieces
So this is how the guilt feels
It can break you down
Break you down
Break you down

I am waiting
But I find myself looking
I'm sick of myself
I'm so lonely I just found out

Sometimes I can't control these tears
Everything is falling down on me
I feel so cold
And it's all my fault

So this is how the guilt feels
It can break you down to pieces
So this is how the guilt feels
It can break you down
Break you down
Break you down
Break you down
Break you down
