Another Minute Until Ten

Typecast

The sun is shining down on you
It's time to show the truth
It's time to show your true face now
You're walking with content disorder
You're colder
You know that I can see through you

Try, try me
Try, try me

Unexpectable drop-by's
My body's pressed against the wall
It's cracking up my skin again
Obviously you're happy
The sun is shining down on you
You know it all
Just give me one reason to live

Try, try me
