

Better-Off

Typecast

Leave him
He's not worth the pain
He's not worth it at all
Maybe he just made mistakes
Maybe he's not so serious
Ask yourself am I improving?
The memories are all so dumb
It's just what he wants
He doesn't see how beautiful you are

I say it from the heart
When will you see that I need you
Please do stop and think about
You're better off with me

Look around, do you see him?
When problems come he seems to disappear
You said he's starting to understand
But I think he doesn't have a brain

He's the guy who loves to fuck around
The kind that breaks the hearts of girls like you
Please do stop and think about
You're better off with a loser like me
