

Blanket

Typecast

Sleeping side to side
You're a breath away
I'm so close to you
But there's nothing left to say

I smell love from your hair
I hope those are for me
I could kiss you
But I'm scared of everything should I be?

No blankets at sight
No blankets at sight

I'm watching you to sleep
I can't touch your hair
When you go I'll miss you
So I'll asked you not to leave

No blankets at sight
No blankets at sight

Angie you mean everything to me
I'll wait even if it takes forever
