

It was Saturday
And I'm waiting for my friends
And then you came and you dazzled me
With the way you walk near me
And then I thought I would approach you
But it makes no sense
Because you're with your boyfriend

And I know I can never skate the way he does
Growls the way he growls
The way he dress so cool
And I know I can never be the same like him
Cool like him but that's just me, yeah

I was playing my guitar when you passed by
My body got so heavy, I can't move my fingers
And then you sat in front of me
I see you staring at me
You could see me shiver

And I know I can never skate the way he does
Growls the way he growls
The way he dress so cool
And I know I can never be the same like him
Cool like him but that's just me, yeah

I'm a little older, but I feel so young
And even if your boyfriend kicks my ass
It's alright I see you there

I'm a little older, but I feel so young
And even if your boyfriend kicks my ass
It's alright I see you there
