

Forget

Typecast

I remember
How can I forget
Unpredictable but no regrets
I'm drowning in this waters
Your hand is out there somewhere

I guess it's time to say goodbye
Please no more lies
I've had enough of wasted time
But I don't have

I wear the costume
Of never ending shame
But somehow I feel okay
Help me remember to forget
I want to forget

But you're beautiful
And I can't stop myself
From feeling numb
I'm here waiting for you
To break my heart
Break my heart
Again
