

You Will Be Alone

Typecast

It's enough for both of us
And everyone
Curtains down
Take a bow you had your fun

Who's to blame for all of this?
Yes we are
The ones who shut the door
We had our chance
It's too late for changes

We have no right to ask
Why we'll die alone

It's your last embrace
It's your last

Make the most of what's left
'Cause this is the end
Or you will be alone
And it's all our fault
The damage has been done
