Typhoon

Tipping cup, inverted crown
I'm a tarot card reading upside down

All my strength it's been turned around
Always crushing me under a million pounds

I want to dance, but I don't know how
And the will to be somebody slows me down

You gotta learn how to live
On an ever shorter tether
But if you're good, even for once
It's written: you'll be good forever
