

Omni/Impotence

Typhoon

There's no water to weep
But I'll keep my head bowed religiously
As I stare directly into my future
Not looking pretty

You want proof? I'll do anything
If it's the truth I will tell it incidentally
But I need you to know I don't need you
Why don't you believe me?

For this last one I'm gonna need
Volunteers if you please
Watch me closely as I turn something
Back to nothing

Que sera, c'est la vie
I tried living it was not for me
But I wish I could be there to see
How you take the news

I am giving up the world and then I'm ready to dance
And then I'm ready to dance
Yeah I am giving up the world and then I'm ready to dance
And then I'm ready

I take it back
I wasn't ready yet
But if I was stronger
If I was stronger

If I was stronger
If I was stronger
If I was stronger
I might be dangerous

If I was stronger
If I was stronger
If I was stronger
I might be dangerous
Dangerous
