

Rescue

Tyrese

Waterfalls and blue skies
I see it in your eyes (I see it in your eyes)
Fire on a cold night
With me laying by your side (by your side)

I remember feeling nothing
Gone from all the pain
Heart had turned to stone
Thought I was better off alone

I was drifting on the ocean
Lost before you pulled me in

Oh you, oh baby you
Are my rescue
Oh you, baby you
Are my rescue
Nobody else could've saved me

You pulled me off the front line
While I was at war with love (war)
It was a fight to trust (trust)

To never ask for anything
To give to me your everything
Proved enough (uh)

I remember feeling nothing
Gone from all the pain (gone from all the pain)
Heart had turned to stone
Thought I was better off alone

I was drifting on the ocean
Lost before you pulled me in

Baby
Oh you, baby you
Are my rescue
Oh you, baby you
Are my rescue
Nobody else could've saved me

(You're my rescue)
I want you
I need you
I love you
I want you, baby
(You're my rescue, baby)

Alone
No more feeling alone
Without any hope
You turned this house to a home
And now the search is over
No longer all alone
'Cause love, love found us

Oh, yeah

Oh you, baby you
Are my rescue
Oh you, baby you
Are my rescue

You're my rescue, baby
That's since you would've save me
And I'm never gonna let you go, bae
Gonna put you in my life
Hoping I could make you my wife
'Cause you're mine
Gonna put you in my life
I'm hoping I could make you my wife
'Cause you're mine
