

Shame

Tyrese

I need your forgiveness
And your mercy too
I must be all kinda crazy
For what I've done to you
I hope you understand
That my heart is true
Mistakes, I've made 'em
But I'm making change for you

"Have I learned?" is your question
And my answer "I have."
But if you're expecting perfection
Then we're not gon' last
This is not an excuse
I'm just telling the truth
Baby, I'm so sorry
For hurting you

Oh, I'm ashamed of me (Shame on me)
Wish I never done you wrong (Shame on me)
Every night of us I dream
Then I wake up and you're gone

I know why you left me
But since you've been gone
My understanding
Has more than grown
I've come to this conclusion
Over and over again
I don't want an enemy
I just want back my friend

Oh, I'm ashamed of me (Shame on me)
I wish I never done you wrong (Shame on me)
Every night of us I dream
Then I wake up and you're gone

Wish I could say sorry
Oh will you come back home
Hey, baby, yeah
I wish diamonds could do it
So I wouldn't have to be alone
If I knew then what I know now
Everything would be fine
Yeah, yeah, yeah

I'm so ashamed, ashamed of me (Shame on me)
Said I wish I never done you wrong (Shame on me)
Every night of us I dream
Then I wake up and you're gone

(I'm ashamed of me)
I'm ashamed of me, yeah (Shame)
I'm ashamed of all the lies I told (Shame)
Wish I'd come home, wish I'd come home at night (Shame)
Girl, I wish I had never creeped, oh lordy (Shame)
Said I'm ashamed,

Baby, I thought there was something better out there for me
Come home, babe
What am I supposed to tell these kids,
Babe

Baby, I'm ashamed
I'm so sorry, babe
I'm so sorry
