

Unbelievable

Tyrese

Where does the sky end?
What makes wind blow?
When did time begin?
We may never know

Much like the day it rains
But the sun still shines
It's a mystery to me
I can call you mine

I'll be the first one to admit
I'm not the easiest to deal with
Though nobody's perfect
You make me feel like I'm worth it

And anybody else would just
Up and leave this man
That's why you having love for me
Is so hard to understand

Un-be-lievable
Un-be-lievable
Un-be-lievable

If the half was ever told
Everyone would know
You're unbelievable

It was just a house
You made it a home
Somehow you took what was there
And, made it your own

I couldn't see my life if you
Hadn't come along
You turned what was only lyrics
Into a song

I'll be the first to admit
I'm not the easiest to deal with
Though nobody's perfect
You make me feel like I'm worth it

And I know anybody else
Would just up and leave this man
That's why you having love for me
Is so hard to understand

Un-be-lievable
Un-be-lievable
Un-be-lievable

If the half was ever told
Everyone would know
You're unbelievable

I was a man, when I met you

You made a better man out of me
And I made her know everything
There is to know about love
Or how it's really supposed to be Better know, you're unbelievable
To me

Un-be-lievable (things you do for me, you're)
Un-be-lievable (I can't believe that you and me)
Un-be-lievable

If the half was ever told
Everyone would know

You're unbelievable
