

Fly

Tyrone Wells

Sittin' in the airport waiting for the plane to come
One man walks, one man runs
Seems to me every burden every care
Is about to slip into the air
Some are eager to go
Some have baggage in toe
Some just cry
I'm not ready to fly fly fly
Everybody says goodbye, fly fly fly
We all take flight sometime
Sittin' in the airport waiting for the plane to come
One man regrets everything he's done
So many choices that he made along the way
Leave him alone to face this day
Some are eager to go
Some have baggage in toe
Some just cry
I'm not ready to fly fly fly
Everybody says goodbye, fly fly fly
We all take flight sometime
When my plane comes and I hit the sky
And I start to fly darling don't you cry
When my plane comes I'll be more alive
With heaven in my eyes
We will meet again
Fly fly fly everybody says goodbye
Fly fly fly we all take flight sometime, sometime
