

Keep On Climbing

Tyrone Wells

So many streets I went down left me in the dark
Alone, looking for a spark
How many times can I break my heart

So many dreams I left behind me
In the dust I've seen shimmer turn to rust
But still, I'm never giving up

I'm gonna keep on climbing
I'm gonna keep on rising
There's no chains holding me down
There's no rain drowning me out
When I'm flying

When I open my eyes
I see the constants of the sun
Every new morning, here it comes
It's teaching me it can be done

When I open my heart
So many things that I regret
Choices I wish I could forget
But I know this ain't over yet

I'm gonna keep on climbing
I'm gonna keep on rising
There's no chains holding me down
There's no rain drowning me out
When I'm flying

I'm gonna keep on loving
Even when I'm losing
Close my eyes, open my mind
Keep my heart, open up wide
Yeah, I'm trying

I'm gonna keep on climbing

Even when the storms coming
(Keep on climbing)
Even when I know nothing
(Keep on climbing)
Even when I lose hope
(Keep on climbing)
Cause every doors shuttin'
(Gonna keep on climbing)
Even when the ground shakin'
(Keep on climbing)
Even when my hearts breakin'
(Keep on climbing)
Whatever may come
(Keep on climbing)
Whatever I'm facing

I'm gonna keep on climbing, climbing, climbing
I'm gonna keep on climbing, climbing, climbing
There's no chains holding me down

There's no rain drowning me out
When I'm flying

I'm gonna keep on loving
Even when I'm losing
Close my eyes, open my mind
Keep my heart open up wide
Yeah, I'm trying

I'm gonna keep on climbing
Keep on climbing
I'm gonna keep on climbing
Keep on climbing
