

Babylon

U.D.O.

Walk the world of wonders where every tale is true
Ride a magic journey that was made for me and you

Scent of jasmine lingers in the air
Time to find an ancient love-affair
Lonely heartbeats echo in the night
Mystic havens - fantasies ignite

Dancing in the desert where dreams are taking flight
Genies granting wishes in a thousand and one nights

Breezes rushing - fantasies unfold
Tales of love and passion to be told
Hear the mystic symphony of night
Gentle whisper - for your own delight

In one thousand and one nights
Where the holy gate's gonna be your fate
Golden treasures shining bright
For the Holy Queen of Babylon

Flying magic carpets are endless dreams of ours
Finding an oasis in glowing moonlit hours

Come on now be brave don't hesitate
Open up the empyrean gate
Rising higher faster in the sky
Feeling sure that we will never die

In one thousand and one nights
Where the holy gate's gonna be your fate
Golden treasures shining bright
For the Holy Queen of Babylon

Light and shadows dance in the stillness of the night
Come and take my hand live the fantasy of life
Still the jasmine lingers in the air
Everlasting ancient love-affair

Still our heartbeats echo in the night
Mystic shadows dancing in the sky

In one thousand and one nights
Where the holy gate's gonna be your fate
Golden treasures shining bright
For the Holy Queen of Babylon
