

Batter The Power

U.D.O.

Batter the power
Batter the power

Demons, spirits of darkness
Need to devour the seat of the king
Follow the beast to his hollow
Calling the hour to pay for all sins

Take on his soul, puncture his eye
Searing of flesh that we tear
The chosen return out of the sky
Leaving their mark everywhere

We're heading to battle, we're setting to sea
Not looking for glory, we'll die to be free
We'll never surrender, we'll fight to the end
All hail to victory

Batter the power
Batter the power

Angels condemning his evil
Starting upheaval as victor within
Follow them out of the shadow
Away from the sorrow into the light

Take on his soul, puncture his eye
Searing of flesh that we tear
The chosen return out of the sky
Leaving their mark everywhere

We're heading to battle, we're setting to sea
Not looking for glory, we'll die to be free
We'll never surrender, we'll fight to the end
All hail to victory

Batter the power, hammer it all
Razing the tower where mighty will fall
Ever and ever, divining the call
Freedom and justice for all

Batter the power
Batter the power

We're heading to battle, we're setting to sea
Not looking for glory, we'll die to be free
We'll never surrender, we'll fight to the end
All hail to victory
We're heading to battle, we're setting to sea
Not looking for glory, we'll die to be free
We'll never surrender, we'll fight to the end
All hail to victory
