

Face Of A Stranger

U.D.O.

Who's the guy in the mirror
I've never seen before
Afraid to let him in here
So I better lock the door

I forget how to remember
The present and the past
Every day is an adventure
Every day might be the last

Like a face of a stranger
Look me in the eye
Like a face of a stranger
It is time to say good-bye

Many moments full of flashbacks
Reflect another life
Reality has turned black
It's gonna be alright

I'm living in a dreamworld
Always on my own
And missing all the true words
Where is everybody gone

On a face of a stranger
Not afraid to cry
On a face of a stranger
No more time to reason why
Look a stranger in the eye

Fading oceans of memories
Bring tears of anguish and shame
A song of vanishing melodies
Where days and nights sound the same

Time is endless for evermore
Like dreams on wind's golden gale
Behind the rim of the final door
The sounds of darkness prevail

Like a face of a stranger
Look me in the eye
Like a face of a stranger
It is time to say good-bye

Like a face of a stranger
Look me in the eye
Like a face of a stranger
It is time to say good-bye

On a face of a stranger
Not afraid to cry
On a face of a stranger
No more time to reason why

Who's the guy in the mirror - I see a face of a stranger

Always on my own - where is everybody gone
I wish I could remember - but I've lost it all forever
