

It Takes Two To Tango

U.D.O.

In your mind you are the master
Most superior of all
No one knows what you are after
Pride will come before the fall

Everybody knows your name
And there's a price to pay for fame
But you haven't got a clue
On your own will never do

It takes two to tango
It takes six to rock
It takes two to tango
It takes six to rock

Your world is cold yet so perfected
Make believe that you do care
Empathy will be rejected
It's a one man's love affair

In the glamour lies your pain
In the limelight you remain
But the world of light and sound
Is a kingdom with no crown

It takes two to tango
It takes six to rock
It takes two to tango
It takes six to rock

Every stain has been detected
And all the bridges have been burnt
Now at last you've been accepted
That's a lesson to be learnt

It takes two to tango
Oh yeah
It takes six to rock
Oh yeah, hey yeah, hey yeah
It takes two to tango
Oh oh oh, oh oh oh, it takes two to tango
It takes six to rock
Yeah, it takes six to rock

It takes two to tango
T-t, t-t, t-t, t-tango - t-t, t-t, t-t, to rock
It takes six to rock
It takes six, it takes six, it takes six to rock
It takes two to tango
T-t, t-t, t-t, t-tango - t-t, t-t, t-t, to rock
It takes six to rock
Oh yeah, oh yeah, yeah
