

Neon Diamond

U.D.O.

There are angels of silence
Just seeking a world
With a heart lost in pages
Where there's no love to gain
Many endless desires
Every dream on just gold
Nothing's forever
And someone's alone

Pleading, believing, willing to share a whole life
Searching for something to win a heart away

Like a neon diamond
A neon diamond

There is no everlasting
But we always need more
Why is nobody asking
What is it all for
We're obsessed by a hunger
That cannot be filled
Lost all sense of wonder
On what can we build

Pleading, believing, willing to share a whole life
Searching for something to win a heart away

Like a neon diamond
Shining in the night
A neon diamond
Won't ever make it right
Shining and blinding
Like a neon diamond
Shining in the night
A neon diamond
Won't ever make it right
Won't ever make it right!
