

Punchline

U.D.O.

You place yourself at mountain high
Living your boastful life
Full of empty promise - do you realize?
A cashbag full of lies

All the bullshit that you always tell
Just a bad joke
Just a bad joke
All the bullshit that you always tell
You're acting like a smart aleck
Like a smart aleck

Where is the punchline here?
Where is your punchline?
Acting like a fool don't make you cool
Where is your punchline?
Acting like a fool won't make you cool

You're acting lonely high above
And think you're super tough
Once you've left the room - it's not what you assume You're just a progeny of doom

All the bullshit that you always tell
Just a bad joke
Just a bad joke
All the bullshit that you always tell
You're acting like a smart aleck
Like a smart aleck

Where is the punchline here?
Where is your punchline?
Acting like a fool don't make you cool
Where is your punchline?
Acting like a fool won't make you cool

When the day has come
And nobody's near
You'll break down in tears
So better think twice
Of all you have done
Or you will be all alone

Where is the punchline here?
Where is your punchline?
Acting like a fool don't make you cool
Where is your punchline?
Acting like a fool won't make you cool
