

Tongue Reaper

U.D.O.

Heaven for liars they burn up the sky
Written in fire and lies
Roasted and scrambled and toasted and fried
Raging and rolling the dice

Oh, reach for the seeker
Beware when he knocks on your door
Oh, don't pray for the preacher
Better - don't open that door

What a terrible nightmare
Everything's gonna burn
Gotta get out of the fire
The truth - has no way to turn

He's a tongue reaper
Burns in your throat
Tongue reaper's alive
He's a tongue reaper
Tied up and sold
Ripping your tongue out of sight

We are the hunted, chased and the damned
Ringing the bell outta time
Bleeding and screaming and covered in lies
Chained up in rivers of crime

No, follow the teacher
Now you can open the door
Go, hide from the keeper
Now you are out of this law
