Come back, take me with you
I can't exist if me don't equal you now
Be here, right as I am, right as you were
Answer me please, love

To feel your head rest on my chest
So still, and close to my breath, oh
To feel your head rest on my chest
So still, forever

Sleep now, in my arms forever
Sleep now, in my arms together
Dream that we won't wake from ever
Sleep now, in my arms

Fell down, all on my own
I'd rather be an angel with you than be alone
I cry, even in my sleep, acres I weep
Answer me please, love

To feel your head rest on my chest
So still, and close to my breath, oh
To feel your head rest on my chest
So still, forever

Sleep now, in my arms forever
Sleep now, in my arms together
Dream that we won't wake from ever
Sleep now, in my arms

I think about you all the time
But you won't ever know
I think about you all the time
But you won't ever know
I think about you all the time
But you won't ever know
I think about you all the time
But you won't ever know

Sleep now, in my arms forever
Sleep now, in my arms together
Dream that we won't wake from ever
Sleep now, in my arms
