Ubiquitous Synergy Seeker

You make me feel like,
A shooting star
You make me feel like,
A porno star
You hold me closer still,
When I get paranoid
You give your hand to hold,
When I lose control

You're like my compass and
We always find our way
You bring your smile and wipe
Away my shitty day
This sudden alchemy
Has got me holding on
Stand-by auxiliary
Signals holding strong

You make me so content
With everything I am
You bring me up and in
When I'm down and out
Heroine of confidence
When I'm strung out on doubt
If I'm not making sense
You sort the riddles out

You're like my compass and
We always find our way
You bring your smile and wipe
Away my shitty day
This sudden alchemy
Has got me holding on
Stand-by auxiliary
Signals holding strong

You're so my everyday
You're so my sweetest love
You're so the greatest change
I'm always dreaming of

You're like my compass and
We always find our way
You bring your smile and wipe
Away my shitty day
This sudden alchemy
Has got me holding on
Stand-by auxiliary
Signals holding strong
