

Yo Hello Hooray (Everyday)

Ubiquitous Synergy Seeker

Every day, every day

Start panicking, turn into a mannequin
Take a breath now, ahh, begin again
Open your eyes please
Turn your smile on
Realign with now as well
You start freaking out
Wishing you were peaking out
Hold it together now
Instead of leaking out
Turn your smile on
Turn your smile up bright

Remember the days when your laughter was meant
Remember the days when you did what you said
You're counting the days til you get high again
Chill out, be easy on yourself

You stop choosing it
Suddenly you're losing it
Give it a kiss now
Instead of bruising it
More than a mean fear
Pieces whole here
Let the past go boys and girl
You start stressing out
Time to learn a lesson, doubts
Not in your jeans, so please stop your guessing bout
Turn your smile on

Remember the days when your laughter was meant
Remember the days when you did what you said
You're counting the days til you get high again
Chill out, be easy on yourself

Every day, every day
Every day in 50 million ways
I like to play with each cell of your brain
I call and say Yo Hello Hooray
I'd like to wake up a moment from your smile
