The Wild, The Willing and The Innocent

UFO

they don't seem to sound right, I have put them in [ ].
/Who's/ ["He's"] dressed to kill, out to thrill
Waiting for you tonight
Got my ear down to the ground
Waiting for the warning sound
Something's got to bite
* And I 'm looking for a wild rose
In the heat of the night
Waiting for a show
Looking for a wild rose
In the heat of the night
Waiting for a show
 And the wild, the willing and the innocent
Are down, down in the jungle tonight
As the jackal tracks every step you make
Watching, waiting for the one chance to bite
Time was right, a satin light
In the final dangerous game
/Trap set,/ ["Attracted"] in the net
Feel my hands start to sweat
Ooh I'm taking aim
Repeat *

[INSTRUMENTAL]
Cold black steel, your last meal
The hand of fate has come
Phone taps, blueprint maps
Making my nerve ends snap
/Public Enemy Number One/ ["Call me again I'll be your number o
