

Crash Test Dummy

Ulrik Munther

You always say that I'm in your way
I'm guilty of no crime
I'm not your hard times
Your bad hair day ain't mine to care
(But) I won't take the blame
Your accusations are lame

Ooh
And I can tell you want a fight
Ooh

But I won't be your punishing bag
I'm not your freaking [?]
You're always take it out of me
I'm not gonna be
I'm not a crush test dummy
Cause you got nothing on me
I'm not gonna be your crash test dummy

Seems like lately you love to hate me
I don't know why but its a waste of our time
Cause everybody singing to the same old song
Nothing ever changes til
It's too far gone

Ey,
ooh
And I don't want that to be up
Ooh

But I won't be your punishing bag
I'm not your freaking [?]
You're always take it out of me
I'm not gonna be
I'm not a crush test dummy
Cause you got nothing on me
I'm not gonna be a crash test dummy

I get its not attention of a girl
It hurts
In Every single Word

Ooh
We are just a fraction
Of what we could be
If you only let me in

I'd wipe your tears and understand
I'd listen to your favorite bands
Cove our name into a tree
It could be just you and me

But I won't be your punishing bag
I'm not your freaking [?]
You're always take it out of me

I'm not gonna be
