

Frank Ocean

Ulrik Munther

I wanna be Frank Ocean
I wanna be Bon Iver
But I'm just not there
Haven't practiced enough yet
I wanna be able to say something different
That hasn't been said yet
But I'm scared

I'm scared of trying
'Cause I don't know if I'll succeed
You know, I'm such a coward
I'm barely daring to dream
Don't know if I'm awake
But I've counted all the sheep

I wanna feel emotions
I wanna scream and shout
But still I keep
Pushing my feelings down
And get so anxious
I'm so damn self aware
Even as I say this
I fear you probably don't care
My thoughts are going crazy
Lying here in bed

Girl, tell me who I am
And who I have to become
To be happy
Become to be happy

Girl, tell me who I am
And who I have to become
To be happy
To be happy
