

I Don't Wanna Talk Right Now

Ulrik Munther

I don't wanna talk right now
We will figure it out
I promise you're not alone
Not gonna let you go
Do we really need this fight,
To see who's wrong or right?
Forget everything I've said
Let's open a bottle of red

So for a minute, just leave it alone
Is it really something that we can't postpone?
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now
Leave the dishes, we'll turn off our phones
Get under the covers, I'll keep you close
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now

I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now

I can hear you loud and clear
We'll work it out my dear
Just like we always do
You know I want that too

So for a minute, just leave it alone
Is it really something that we can't postpone?
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now

I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now

We've been down this road before
And I know where it goes
I speak my mind, you say that's fine
But then you pick up your phone
And I don't wanna go to bed
If I know that you're upset
So I hold my tongue till the morning comes

'Cause I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now

I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now
I don't wanna talk right now
(I don't wanna talk right now)
