

Breakfast For Two

Ultra Naté

Come on, come on
Come on, come on
Come on, come on
Come on, come on

Woh baby
Me & you, me & you
Breakfast for two

I could not wait forever
I said I'd take my time
The first night we're together
Tonight I claim what's mine
Been thinkin' all day long
Bout how it's goin' down
You come to pick me up
Let's hang out for a while

And you've been waiting for me to decide
If I was ready to give my love
Makin' you mine
And I didn't want to rush it and be left in the cold
But tonight there'll be no good night kisses at my front door

We're gonna have
Breakfast for two (me & you baby)
Tonight will last forever no we can't get enough
We're gonna have
Breakfast for two (breakfast for two)
We'll be doing it until the sun comes up
We're gonna have
Breakfast for two (you & me baby)
Tomorrow is so far away I never wanna stop
We're gonna have
Breakfast for two (breakfast for two)
Everybody knows how good it feels to be in love

We're dancing to the music
I feel you close to me
I like the way you're moving
In total ecstasy
The heat is slowly rising
And you don't even know
This fire that you've started
Is about to explode

And you've been waiting patiently for me to decide
If I was ready to give my love
Makin' you mine
And I didn't want to rush it and be left in the cold
Tonight I'm giving everything and so much more

We're gonna have
Breakfast for two (me & you baby)
Tonight will last forever no we can't get enough
We're gonna have
Breakfast for two (breakfast for two)

We'll be doing it until the sun comes up
We're gonna have
Breakfast for two (you & me baby)
Tomorrow is so far away I never wanna stop
We're gonna have
Breakfast for two (breakfast for two)
Everybody knows how good it feels to be in love

You know we can't enough (repeat)

We're gonna have
Breakfast for two (me & you baby)
Tonight will last forever no we can't get enough
We're gonna have
Breakfast for two (breakfast for two)
We'll be doing it until the sun comes up
We're gonna have
Breakfast for two (you & me baby)
Tomorrow is so far away I never wanna stop
We're gonna have
Breakfast for two (breakfast for two)
Everybody knows how good it feels to be in love

Come on, come on
