

It's Crying Time

Ultra Naté

I was your girl
I was your baby

Remember
I was forever
For worse or for better
Faithfully
Told you my secrets
And all of my fears
You let me
Gave me your love

And said it was real
A fantasy

Pre chorus
Something so good
Should last forever
How could you lie
So carefully
Falling apart
Will I recover
Lying alone
I sit and wonder
For now

Chorus
It's crying time
Love is gone
I still need you
I gave you all my heart
You took the best
And threw the rest away

Shame on you boy
You should of known better
You didn't care
The joke is on me
But I am not laughing
Just sit and stare
Disguised
Like a knight in shining armor
An illusion

Playing a role
And now the show's over
I'm broken

Pre chorus
