i see the things that you do i see the people you screw i see the world that you make i see the mess you create i see you contaminate with your refusal to wait a mouth that's dripping with greed you destroy with your need
same m.o.
waste
watch it grow
i see you bump into walls i see you stand up and fall i see you stretched out and dry under the new sun you fry you stare directly ahead to pull yourself from the red you pull the rug from your feet to glue the ends that you meet
same m.o.
watch it grow
don't you fucking deprive me you offer what you can't give you take what once made you live with steps you can not retrace you need a past you erased
to this endless lie take it down
same m.o.
watch it grow
