Don't Stop to Learn

Umbra Et Imago

How ever will your heart turn Don't stop to learn what ever suffering you see will try to make you free hold on living heart give every day a new start

Hold your myth alive hold it like a mistres or a holy wife take your love like a last kiss your faith don't miss let your mission burn don't stop to learn swim with me across the misty sea hold though the holy key let your secret feelings burn don't stop to learn
