

everything will be alright

UMI

□□□□□□□□ gold
□□□□□□□□yeah
□□□□□□ as I got older
So baby girl you should let down your shoulder

Hey just leave the past in past
All that bullshit you could even unpack
Your intuition must lead you here

Baby ever since you called my name
I been thinkin' like 24 hours a day
If you and me could really make it thru yeah
I should be honest, I be honest with you yeah

□□□□ I been down so bad
What it is I gotta heal from the past
□□□ find it hard to tell you truth
I guess that I should tell you the truth that

Ohhh you got me
Starin' out my window
Ask the sun to help me
Make sense of the feelings
I be so avoiding
It's my turn to turn the page
I don't know how else to say this
But

Got my ego going crazy
Got to get to out of my mind
Got me doubting what we started
I should take a step outside
□□□□ □□□□ I wanna run and hide
But then I remember

Everything will be alright
Everything will be alright
Everything will be alright
Everything will be alright

□□□□□□□□ gold
□□□□□□□□yeah
□□□□□□ as I got older
So baby girl you should let down your shoulder

Hey just leave the past in past
All that bullshit you could even unpack
Your intuition must lead you here
I hope you heard me, hear me loud and clear yeah

Cuz ohhh you got me
Starin' out my window
Know that god you got me
I let go of fear
I take my time and I'll be
I be so okay cuz after night
The sun will shine

The darkness come and go
I let it be

Got my ego going crazy
Got to get to out of my mind
Got me doubting what we started
□□□□ □□□□ I wanna run and hide
But then I remember

Everything will be alright
Everything will be alright
Everything will be alright
Everything will be alright
