

Open Up

UMI

I shouldn't lie to you
It wouldn't be nice to you
If I wasn't being myself yeah
Why I'm so scared of myself yeah
I couldn't fight the truth
I wasn't gettin' over you
I shouldn't run from the bad times
I should just work on my bad side

Don't let go
Of what's in front of me
The pain in my soul
Is making it hard to breathe
And I should've know
That I'm still the older me
See my journey onward
Sojourn home

I didn't mean to break your trust
I didn't mean to make this tough
I'm scared I'm gonna pass you up
I really wanna show you love
And maybe who I be is enough
And maybe all I need is a hug
Know I never mean to fuck it up
Maybe I just need to open up

No more goodbye
I'm scared to make you cry
Can't you look you in the eye
I prayed for peace of mind
And I shouldn't lie
I'm scared this isn't right
I ain't used to nice
I ain't used to nice guys

Don't let go
Of what's in front of me
The pain in my soul
Is making it hard to breathe
And I should've know
That I'm still the older me
See my journey onward
Sojourn home

I didn't mean to break your trust
I didn't mean to make this tough
I'm scared I'm gonna pass you up
I really wanna show you love
And maybe who I be is enough
And maybe all I need is a hug
Maybe all I be is enough
Know I never mean to fuck it up
Maybe I just need to open up

Open up yeah
I really wanna open up for you

I really wanna open up for you
Ohhh...
