

too late

UMI

Falling out
Falling out of line for you
Running out
Running out of time for you

Cuz feelings have changed
Yeah yeah
Nothing's the same
Yeah yeah yeah
Try to explain
To you
But I know you know it too
You know that

If I was to tell you the truth
You'd be over it and
If I was to tell you the truth
You'd think I'm lying to you
If I was to tell you the truth
I know you'd never wanna
Hear me through
Hear me through
Here for you

So why did you call
Why did you call so late
Thought you knew what I was feeling
Thought you knew that I was leaving
So why'd you call
Why'd you call so soon
Know I tried to overcompensate
I know that I was running late

Cuz feelings have changed
Yeah yeah
Nothing's the same
Yeah yeah yeah
Try to explain
To you
But I know you know it too
You know that

If I was to tell you the truth
You'd be over it and
If I was to tell you the truth
You'd think I'm lying to you
If I was to tell you the truth
I know you'd never wanna
Hear me through
Hear me through
Here for you

If I was to tell you the truth
You'd be over it and
If I was to tell you the truth
You'd think I'm lying to you
If I was to tell you the truth

I know you'd never wanna
Hear me through
Hear me through
Here for you
