

Ocean Billy

Umphey's McGee

such a misfortune to steal but the time finally came so I took if the moment was stretched to the sea would it matter if nobody looked half of the time on the stage most of it's not even real regardless of anything fake how much can you practice to steal if the moment gets lost in a word for one time just let it be heard resembling is never enough to carry on blind was absurd ('tween???) other side of the choice it's possible it holds even more however the effort is voiced this has all probably happened before i missed the boat on what you said so say it all again say it all
