

They been raisin' my emotions, I'm trippin' off the potion Getting the notion I'm going to hell Stuck in the witch's nest castin' a spell Watchin' the Vatican Tapes on the deck, messin' with the demons and they eatin' the flesh UNAVERAGE GANG and will lay you to rest, we got put to the test if we blessed, I'm refusin' to die like a pest Hearing your heartbeat come from the chest Cold as Alaska on top of the crest Been seein you runnin' from your fuckin' life, I know you been contemplatin' suicide
See the blood drippin' down my fuckin' eyes Lost in hollow hear the praise to the fuckin' night Rather be with two lions then a hundred sheep, stuck for eterni ty and never see defeat

Bitch, I hope you know that we dying tonight Send you to the bottom meet you in the afterlife, never over th inkin' shit I set it to the side Listen to the legends as we coming from the sin, coming with th at ax and I'm chopping off your limbs Go to to the den and I'm pullin' the pin, watch the explosion t o show who it is, it is the reaper decides you exist Listen to the psycho demons when they have to cry, hold my self together I will never live a lie Got the chopper comin' and aimin' at yo' life, fuck with the bu llets I would rather use a knife to fight Don't cross the night without a light, U.A.V comin' to your cit y to provide Swore to the devil I will never confide, breaking the spirit co llecting souls of the prime
