

Damaged

Unaverage Gang

I've been on my own, yeah
Have you ever felt alone? Yeah
I've been always on my own, yeah
Have you ever felt alone? Yeah

Look
Many months since I felt gone
Hope it never last 'cause I'm sick and I've been done
And keep in mind of all the shit that we pass on Even our legacies they will learn from us
So fuck what you know
All the little things, bitch I've heard it all before
It isn't new to me, but I hear it more and more Too often, I'm lost
I don't know who to care for
And I hide it so well
That many people never see, I'm in hell
I've been tryin' to break the walls just to get out myself
I can't do it alone, so I'm still stuck in this cell
It can't help that it's hard not to lose control
Many options I've lost, thought I lost 'em all
And the ones that are left only shows my flaws
I'm feeling so helpless 'cause

I've been on my own, yeah
Have you ever felt alone? Yeah
I've been always on my own, yeah
Have you ever felt alone? Yeah

Lost inside my mind, my soul's been damaged, I feel weak
Walking down this lonely path I hate this feeling, I can't brea the Evil lurks while you can't sleep, put your faith inside the bea st
Only place forever promised is right underneath your feet
Pick your poison and you'll see, bad things tend to follow me
Where's the light when I can't see?
In the dark with all the freaks
I've tried my best to break away, but the darkness won't let me free
Here's my soul I rest in piece
Here's my heart but not the key so

I've been on my own, yeah
Have you ever felt alone? Yeah
I've been always on my own, yeah
Have you ever felt alone? Yeah
