

Neglect

Unaverage Gang

I'm fucking lonely in my conscience and it takes me to the darkest place
It's trying break me down
It will not fade away
But nightmares sometime haunt us in the fuckin' weirdest ways
I'm in an empty field with roses that's burning like sage
Blood dripping out the faucet, it's smothered on the walls, it's like
I feel a sense of presence of neglect of a kid that was lost
Feel the hate feel the hurt feel the burn
Now we sitting in silence feeling cursed but now it's your turn

Can you feel the burn?
Just look in my eyes, you can see my demise
Are you willin' to find
The truth in their lies?
The will to live, are you willin' to give
Everything right now?
Choose a side
Need to find yourself
Walkin' down the line
Do you wanna die?

I spin and see a distant blur
The feelings with emotions seem like I can never learn
The Devil waitin' for my death so he can fill my urn
I can feel the demons that surround me waitin' on a turn
And, you know the pain goes on
You know that things go wrong
You try to play along
It just takes too long

The will to live, are you willin' to give
Everything right now?
Choose a side
Need to find yourself
Walkin' down the line
Do you wanna die?
The will to live, are you willin' to give
Everything right now?
Choose a side
Need to find yourself
Walkin' down the line
Do you wanna die?
