

SINKING SLOWLY

Unaverage Gang

This is my breaking point
Try to get famous by chasing dreams that you hatin' on
Always complaining 'bout never gettin' attention you want
This is my dreams, if you love me stop tryna fuck me up
Lately I've been thinking maybe
We're just sinking slowly, slowly, slowly, slowly
This is my breaking point
Try to get famous by chasing dreams that you hatin' on
Always complaining 'bout never gettin' attention you want
This is my dreams, if you love me stop tryna fuck me up
Lately I've been thinking maybe
We're just sinking slowly, slowly, slowly, slowly

Rest is for the weak, I mean, honestly, can you feel my pain?
I'm livin' with the vultures, pluckin' out my eyes and leave 'em blank
Banished alone, with my thoughts, that be written in stone
And soon all our enemies will, see how much we grown
Don't claim on bein' there, never got no time to spare
Claimin' that you real, but your eyes glazed with that hateful stare
Always passin' judgment just to hide your insecurities
Beat me like a punchin' bag, you still won't find security

This is my breaking point
Try to get famous by chasing dreams that you hatin' on
Always complaining bout never gettin' attention you want
This is my dreams, if you love me stop tryna fuck me up
Lately I've been thinking maybe
We're just sinking slowly, slowly, slowly, slowly
This is my breaking point
Try to get famous by chasing dreams that you hatin' on
Always complaining bout never gettin' attention you want
This is my dreams, if you love me stop tryna fuck me up
Lately I've been thinking maybe
We're just sinking slowly, slowly, slowly, slowly

Yeah
I said I think I'm dying slow
Everything will be alright as long as I just got my bros
I think I'm falling apart, you can blame it on my heart
And if you're smart you'll know UNAVERAGE GANG is blowing off the charts
Just look at me
You know this why I came, bout blow out my fuckin brains
Acting like I'm Kurt Cobain, grippin' on that fuckin' shotty
Fuck everybody, if you wanna talk
Come and take a walk with the Angel Of Death up in the dark
