

SOBER

Unaverage Gang

Show me a sign, baby just give me a reason
It's only you I believe in
Doubting myself, I feel like I'm barely breathin'
Falling far with my demons
Really I don't know if, I'm stuck at the end of this road
But this the life you chose, when you met me at my lows
These drugs won't fuck me up, but your love is what kills me most Emotions I provoke is the devil that keeps me close
Fuck you and your clique, I'll give you a tip
Try not to talk bitch, I'll staple your lips
I got that death note and bitch you're on my list
Fuck with the Gang and we'll make you our bitch
Riding 'round northside
Tint all black '86 when ride
Mothafuckas talking they don't really wanna die
Fuckboy step the fuck back before these bullets gon' fly

Sittin on pressure, devil knows you headin' for (Walls caving in, never seen this shit before)
Losin' your sight now, my mind is on a sicker prow
(Can't fuckin' see, all the pain beneath of me)
You banished you anger, your friends with a stranger
(Abandon you, once you have something to lose)
I'm stuck in fallout, how'd I get so far along?
Yeah
I'm 22 with the mind and a past was born a miscast
Outlastin' anybody that be in music for the wrong reasons
It's treason, and deceivin'
What's left of this generation, bodies stackin' 'cause it's amateur motherfuckin' season
We never leavin', as long as you got fuckin' UAV to believe in
