

Someday

Unaverage Gang

Some day, you'll find
The missing piece of my mind
Some day, you'll find
The secrets that are my life
I wanna go far away
Just bring me back home some day
Gettin' lost 'til I fade away
And save me before it's too late

Gettin' lost in my mental
Where the fuck it go?
With all the shit I know, I'm tryin' hard to let it go
From the past that is all of my decisions
I swear that I'm listenin', with all that I'm givin'
Stuck in cross roads, blinded with my eye sewn
Just suck it up and try put some ice on
I'm pushin' through the forest, keep in moving forward
And I'm findin' many things in this life that I'm lookin toward

Some day, you'll find
The missing piece of my mind
Some day, you'll find
The secrets that are my life
I wanna go far away
Just bring me back home some day
Gettin' lost 'til I fade away
And save me before it's too late

It's too late, I got the .9 off safety
All the memories fading away, shit is crazy
Feels like yesterday when we were planning all this rapping shit
And never thought that it would now be happening
Riding through the mothafuckin' night, until I see the daylight
Gotta make it through dark times and the red lights
Yeah, shit is insane on how the time flies
Only one life, only one time
