

SUBTLE TRUTH

Unaverage Gang

Two brothers with one dream
We UAV and that's the motto
Live fast and die young, we don't care to see tomorrow
Dictating what is real
We not gonna side with mumble rap, to hope to get a deal
I hope you feel
The fuckin' pain that comes from all this fake shit
We livin' in world that's so contagious, tryin' to test patience
My mind's loose, my soul is bruised, just find the match to burn the fuse
When you feel used, I'm not amused, with smallest lies, and subtle truth
You're lost for the words, friends turn, feel it burn now
Never let it go
Pressure through the waters if it's grey, it's a bad call
But don't let fall

Falling so damn deep and I can't think In this black hole
This nightmare got me feeling like I'll never be alone
The demons in my dreams are making sure my soul is cold
And my remains are in the afterlife my body decomposed
I wanna keep pushing forward but I keep on turning back and that's fact that me and Vague are fuckin coming back in black, so just relax
This life we live is not that serious
I'm serious it's UAV forever I'm not kidding, bitch
You're lost for the words, friends turn, feel it burn now
Never let it go
Pressure through the waters if it's grey, it's a bad call
But don't let fall
