

THE SUFFERING

Unaverage Gang

Yeah

Feelin' so cold, feelin' so restless, we gotta keep goin' man, fuck this depression

Receiving anxiety, from this society, fuck it's entirety, kill it entirely

Walk in through shadowed halls, as I'm seein' blood drip from d ecayin' walls of our minds

I'm watchin' the hound as he's losin' time, if you fallin' deep er would you still climb?

I'm climbin' out, not feelin' doubt, we holdin' down, we not fa llin' now

UAV rise to the surface, 'til we in Hurses, yeah that's our pur pose

Me and AC made a pack

Like Jaws of the Hounds and we never turnin' back

Bloody mary comin' through the glass with black mask, enough bl ood to fill the cracks

Let go

I feel the pain beneath my skin and then I'm feelin' cold

Then I'm feelin' cold

Just take my soul

Sufferin' from depression and I feel alone

And I feel alone

Mothafuckas never gave a damn, you will never understand, stead y getting used like a kickstand, always wanted help, but you ne ver wanna lend a hand

Now you selling your soul to the devil mothafucka guess what

I am the devil

Fuck with UAV, I'll be breaking yo' vessels

Straight out the crypt, fuckin' with yo' temple

Fuck you, I don't care no more

Hell is where I call my home

Man, it's so cold

I'm all alone

Tripping off that mothafuckin' death wish

Step into the cemetery lookin' for that three six

I know you always thinking that I might be real sick but real s hit fuck all of this

I feel the pain beneath my skin and then I'm feelin' cold

Then I'm feelin' cold

Just take my soul

Sufferin' from depression and I feel alone

And I feel alone
